- VII) Word frequency analysis: Dido [13, 0, 0, 16, 1, 2, 0, 0, 1, 0, 1, 0]

This quote was interesting because you can see parts of the plot reflected in the frequency of the character Dido's name, since we meet her in Book 1 where her name appears 13 times, and then the next two books are about Aeneas recounting his journeys to her so her name doesn't appear at all, and finally in Book 4 where her name appears 14 times, Aeneas leave Dido and she kills herself. We also see her name appear a few more times in later books whenever she's referenced or when Aeneas briefly sees her again in the Underworld.

- VIII) Quote: "Flectere si nequeo superos, Acheronta movebo" – "If I can't move heaven, I'll raise hell (lit. the Acheron, a river in the Underworld)" – found in Book 7

- IX) Generated sentence: "hic tibi magnus ovantem iuppiter aut ille regit artus aridaque ora quierunt centum cui fidus achates at pater omnipotens oculosque loquentis"
